Certain Girls did leave me feeling somewhat deflated. Cannie's internal conflict about her father, her mother, her mother's partner, her ex-boyfriend - all of these issues were very relate-able with a 20-something character. We all go through this type of personal growth. But now Cannie is in her 40s, and I had hoped she had grown.

Certain Girls (Audiobook) by Jennifer Weiner | Audible.com

The last time we saw Cannie Shapiro in Good in Bed she had just had baby Joy and was getting to know her former diet doctor Peter. It is now 13 years later and Joy is a teenager. The book alternates between Cannie and Joy, each telling about their lives. Cannie is now married to Peter and he wants to try to have a baby.
