Then we have the Preterist view, which is divided into the partial Preterist and full Preterist camps. The partial Preterist understands that most, but not all of the prophecies in Revelation have already been fulfilled. They believe that all of the book has been fulfilled up to chapter 20.

The Revelation (Pt 1): The Soon Coming of Christ: Berean ...

In the parable of the ten virgins, the kingdom of heaven "is likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom." The word used to "meet" the bridegroom is apanteas , which means: "to meet, to escort back," as is evidenced by the fact that they met the bridegroom, and then went into the house from which they came:

The Rapture - 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18: Berean Bible Church

Most preterists affirm that we are in the kingdom of God now. That is, we believe that through faith in Jesus Christ we enter into the kingdom of God, which is spiritual. We speak of the spiritual nature of the kingdom. We speak of God dwelling with men. We affirm God's presence with us.

The fact that "the beast" (Nero) and "his kingdom,"(Rome) are "plunged into darkness" is a metaphor for the casting of the beast into the outer darkness of death. (Jb 10:19-22) Because the beast dies between the Caesar Dynasty and the Flavian Dynasty, the 3 "usurpers" during the civil war in between (Galba, Otho and Vitellius) are not heads of the beast.

What is the "Gathering" of Matt. 24:29-31. Matt. 24:29-31 describes the coming of Christ in the events culminating in the destruction of Jerusalem, AD 70. Verse 31 says "And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other."

What is the "Gathering" of Matt. 24:29-31?

Preterist Comments on the Kingdom and Jesus' Return. As reported before full preterists believe that Jesus has returned and there is no future coming. They also tend to claim that the kingdom of God is spiritual and not at all physical. They point to what I consider to be timing scriptures, which do not prove their point at all.

The Dangerous Rise of Preterists

The Parables of the Kingdom of Heaven and the Olivet Discourse In making his presentation on this point, Sproul begins with James Stuart Russell's exposition of the Matthew thirteen "kingdom of heaven" parables.6 Crucial to the preterist viewpoint here is the fact that the so-called end-of-the-world passages speak
