Fight Back With Joy - LifeWay
"Whenever we fight back with joy, we practice a defiant joy that proclaims the darkness has not, and will not win," Margaret shares. "Jesus demonstrated defiant joy as He approached the cross — and we can, too." Margaret hasn't had to fight this battle alone. Her family and friends have rallied around her.

Beauty From Ashes - Session 5 - Fight Back With Joy ...
Joy is far more than I ever thought or had been taught. It's a more dynamic, forceful weapon than most of us realize. When we fight back with joy, we lean into the very presence of God—the One who fill us with joy, even on our most deflated days. The prophet Isaiah alludes to such a mysterious discovery when he declares God's promise in

CELEBRATE MORE. REGRET LESS. STARE DOWN YOUR GREATEST FEARS.
Margaret engages the heart what it means to fight for joy in this study. I like that she is both personable about her own story and calls the studies to examine their own heart before the Lord as well. This study is well put together, and it addresses the emotion of joy from a thorough Biblical perspective.

Fight Back With Joy Quotes by Margaret Feinberg
"Fight Back with Joy" is a giving book. Feinberg gives away a good part of herself in this book. One of the lessons she learned from her fight with breast cancer is that serious illness changes you. She may have been a giving person before it; she is a different giving person after it, a person who gives with God's sense of giving.
